CMHA Resident News

Marquette Manor Celebrates Renovations for Residents

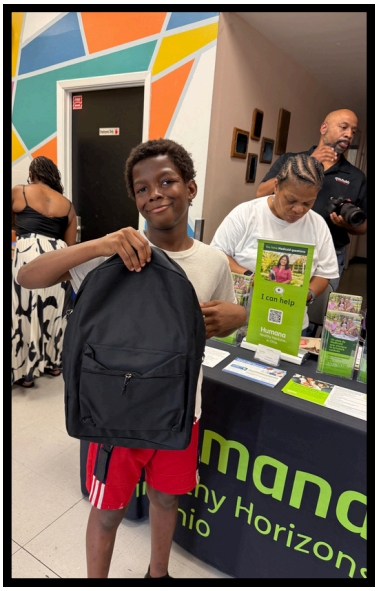

Residents of Marquette Manor were at the heart of the Cincinnati Metropolitan Housing Authority's (CMHA) joyful grand reopening celebration on Friday, August 28, marking a new chapter for this revitalized residential landmark in English Woods.

Originally constructed in 1967, Marquette Manor now stands as a testament to CMHA’s dedication to creating affordable and modern housing for Hamilton County residents. The 15-story building offers 140 one-bedroom units, providing comfortable living spaces for its 146 residents, who will benefit directly from these improvements.

We Excel Hosted Pack the Pack event for Families

CMHA community partner, We Excel, held Pack the Pack, a backpack giveaway and resource fair for families throughout Winton Terrace, Findlater Gardens and City West August 14 through 16. The event brought community partners together to provide families with school supplies and backpacks, books for literacy development, healthcare resources, and additional family resource guides. Representatives from Congressman Landsman's office assisted in packing the backpacks and handing out supplies to children for school.

Community partners attended and assisted families with resources for back to school as well as throughout the school year.

CMHA participated with community partners in the City's Social Service Day 2026

The Social Services Day, through the City of Cincinnati, was held on August 29 to provide resources and services to area residents within the City of Cincinnati. CMHA representatives were on-hand to answer questions about housing and eligibility as well as hand out books for children.

Graduates Complete Sherwin-Williams Painting Class

Biannually, CMHA partners with Sherwin-Williams to provide a painting workshop for CMHA residents and participants. The week-long class teaches individuals the correct way of painting different types of walls and exterior surfaces in addition to teaching business techniques for students to become entrepreneurs. The next class will occur in winter 2027.

CMHA Hosts Veteran Event For Housing

CMHA provided the space and assisted with housing for veterans. CMHA Housing Choice Voucher Program partners with the Veterans Administration to assist veterans struggling with housing insecurity.

In partnership with the Veterans Administration Supportive Housing Program, the event welcomed more than 55 veterans, aiming to help them secure safe and affordable housing.

CMHA Residents Qualify for Family Self-Sufficiency Program

WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT OUR ENVISION CENTERS?

Cincinnati Metropolitan Housing Authority offers a wide range of programs designed to strengthen our communities and support residents on their path to long-term stability and self-sufficiency. Many community partners come onsite to provide food assistance, employment support, and other essential resources for families in our communities. The EnVision Center, serving residents of Winton Terrace and Findlater Gardens, has been a hub for connection and support since opening in 2016.

The Center welcomes both appointments and walk-ins, and each year helps connect thousands of residents to critical resources and service providers.

The EnVision Center brings partner organizations directly to CMHA communities. These include programs such as:

- Produce Perks, offering weekly food distributions at multiple sites
- A monthly Re-Entry One-Stop Shop for residents returning from the Detention Center
- CMHA BLITZ events that support recertifications and rental assistance needs
- Monthly Ohio Means Jobs employment fairs

Additional partners visit regularly, including Cincinnati Cradle, the Cincinnati Health Department, Aetna, Veterans Affairs, and Head Start, among many others.
